Ms. Dagner

Approximately 1 year ago, my partner assisted the Georgia Bureau of Investigations, (GBI) with an investigation which led them to the State of Michigan. They requested we assist them and conduct some followup interviews in Michigan. After completing our assist to them, the GBI agent told us if there was ever anything they could do for us in return, they would be more than willing. Immediately I thought to myself of the person you've spoken of all these years who now resides in GA. A formal request, in writing, was then sent to the GBI, asking if they would be willing to contact him and ask for a voluntary sample of his DNA. "Buccal Swab".

GBI agreed to assist us, and on Feb 1, 2008, contact was made with this subject. He voluntarily signed a waiver of Constitutional Rights to a Search Warrant and voluntarily provided two buccal swabs of his DNA. He was very gracious/cooperative and willing to assist Michigan authorities with our case. (The OCCK investigation).

His sample, along with four other individuals we've recently been investigating, were sent to the FBI lab in Quantico VA. for comparison against our past and "new evidence".

On July 2, 2008, I received the results of the FBI's findings (analysis). Their conclusions are as follows: The mtDNA sequences from xxx,xxx,xxx,xxx,xxx,xxx and xxx are different. Therefore, (the five listed subjects, (names withheld), can be excluded as the source of the evidence xxx and xxx.

Ms Dagner, had this coincidence not occurred with the GBI, we would not have requested the DNA sample be taken from this person, however, with the circumstances involved, and knowing the passion you've exhibited all these years on the OCCK case, I felt out of respect for you and the case, "Why not".

Unfortunately, we didn't get the ever elusive hit we've been looking for all these years, but make no mistake, we "ARE" vigorously working this case.

Respectfully

D/Sgt. Gray and the OCCK Task Force.

Thank you so much for that info...but I know [redacted] was involved in these cases!...Just a few weeks ago...as I went thru my notes...I found something very interesting...and have been working day and night...on follow up...it may be crazy...but I had a note in my files...that said nothing more than..a discussion [redacted] and I had about my Husbands Suicide....We were talking about the day [redacted] killed himself & the date-Nov 20th 1983...and [redacted] said...That is strange-I knew someone who killed himself the same day 5 years earlier...I thought it important enough...to red flag it. But then back in the 90s....I never got to it...and after [redacted] and I weren't getting along so good...so I just put all that stuff in loose papers...but like everything else [redacted] has ever said to me...I know there had to be a reason...that anyone would remember the date of some ones suicide...I know lots of people who have killed them self...and they were people I knew very well...and I couldn't tell you there exact date...So like I said -I am putting this together...and Maybe [redacted] did tell me someone elses story...but I doubt that....anyway this guy who shares death date...is Chris Busch who lived right by [redacted] 1mi and 467 ft...if you take the long way- Name: [redacted] SSN: [redacted] Born: [redacted] Last Benefit: [redacted] , United States of America Died: Nov 1983 State (Year) SSN issued: Michigan (Before 1951)

It is storming...so your lucky I have to get off before I tell you all I know-lol....I know you don't like a long read-again thanks for your contact!!

Your new Investigation presents a lot of scenarios. This guy's house is no more than 4 blocks from and that doesn't account for cutting through yard short cuts. That is too close to be a coincidence and this guy are the same age, same going nowhere life and same damn neighborhood. If this guy is as sick as everyone say: seems to be the more successful of the two - yet his family is nowhere near as affluent nor do they show him the kind of support that this other guy's parents do. Could that have been part of anger against society? Could this have been the friend that drove the cars was jealous of? Finally, could have pedophilic tendencies? Enough to have connected these two in that way? I ask because recently we found out that a guy that hung around my Xxxxx group of friends in HS was arrested for child porn. Would I have ever guessed that about him? No way. He was just a bit odd, but I wouldn't have put him in that category. It afflicts the most unassuming people.

If the DNA is a match, then I'd say it's a done deal. And I'd insist that was closely connected to this guy. I would like to bring up an interesting scenario with Xxxx. Could they have used him as a lure? Could he have been used himself for pedo sex? Look at the guy-- he got the hell out of Michigan as soon as he could. He was "pretty." And he has spent the rest of his life trying to be anyone other than the person he was in Michigan. He suffers from a disease that is born out of stress. He became born again -- looking for salvation after a hideous past?

Another reason I think [redacted] was connected is Xxxxxx experience. She never ever said the man she ran into had facial hair and I am sure she would have mentioned that. She also said it was not a blue Gremlin, but a light colored 4 door circling the block. And you have the call list. I wonder if this guy's name is on tht list?????

Here is another scenario. Perhaps [redacted] abducted these kids. What if he kept them at this guy's house (after-all, the parents are gone in Europe) and offered them for sex in exchange for the hiding place. What if [redacted] was bringing them as "gifts" to this guy like buying a friend? I agree that the cleansing and placing of the kids doesn't fit with a pedophile.

Again, if the DNA is a match, then the answer is there. I am also curious about the dog hair. Did this guy have a dog? What kind? I wonder if that Xxxxx would remember. Did [redacted] have a dog? What kind? When [redacted] was removed from the family home, could he have stayed with this guy?

I know it seems like lots of speculation, it is. Fred

Agent Lang,

I am requesting your assistance in obtaining a Buccal Swab of a subject who was last known to reside in the Atlanta area. The subject is a "Person of Interest" in a cold case homicide dating back to the late 1970's. The case is known as "The Oakland County Child Killer" case.

The below listed subject was brought to our attention by a person who believes he is involved. Although he was investigated and cleared during the original investigation, we feel that obtaining his DNA would finally eliminate him in our eyes, and hopefully in the eyes of the tipster Helen Dagner, (www.Helendagner.com)

We would like your Department to contact _____ to obtain a voluntary Buccal Swab from him. At present we do not have enough evidence to obtain any type of Search warrant, and do not expect to. If, however he refuses, perhaps another type of sample can be obtained and shipped to us for analysis.

A brief synopsis of the case is; During the winter months of 1976 and 1977, four young children were abducted and later found deceased along side roadways in Oakland and Wayne Counties. The case involved two females and two males. Signs of sexual abuse were found on the male victims, but due to other indicators, all the cases "appear" to be connected. We are presently attempting to connect the cases via the use of DNA with evidence located on the property of the victims.

Thanks again for the information. One last favor, I called the clerks office and obtained a copy of death certificate. He committed suicide at his residence located at

Please photograph this residence and surrounding area. Also please note where he lived in relation to the area. (IE) in town, just on the out-skirts of town, etc. Kind of yard, large, small, fenced in etc. The photograph should contain all of the info I may need, but a brief narrative would be great. Also, Dagner was a police officer with Roger City. A police report regarding his suicide would be great, if available. I'd also like to know why he committed suicide if possible. Also if there are any old timers still around who worked with or knew Dagner that you can interview as to the type of person he was. I have a lot of unanswered questions which may eventually lead us to the Alpena area in my current investigation.

Basically, I'd like to know as much as possible about Dagner. The death certificate indicated that he was divorced. His ex-wife's name is Helen Dagner. I know a lot of information about her.

Please call me for some additional info.

Thanks, Please keep this request on the Q.T. and don't share it with many. If anyone asks why you're looking into Dagner, just say it's an old case you're looking into for someone down-state and just leave it at that.

Thanks.....

Ms. Helen Dagner

Dear Ms. Dagner:

This letter responds to your telephone message of April 16, 2009 asking about the estimated fee to process your request (copy attached) for records under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), MCL 15.231 et seq.

Section 4(1) and (3) of the FOIA, MCL 15.234(1) and (3), permits a public body to charge a fee to search for and retrieve records responsive to a request and for the examination and review of the records to determine applicable statutory exemptions from disclosure; and to charge for copying and mailing costs. Section 4(2) of the Act, MCL 15.243(2), permits a public body to require a good faith deposit of half the estimated total fee.

The Michigan Department of State Police's (MSP) fee notice (copy attached) indicated that it contains an estimate of costs to process the FOIA request. This is a good faith estimate, and, depending on the final total amount of records and labor associated with your request, the final total fee may exceed the estimate.

MSP has determined that, based on the description of records in your FOIA request, the MSP Freedom of Information Unit must retrieve a voluminous number of records for review and examination.

MSP tentatively has determined that the following records may fall within the scope of your request:

- 243,750 pages contained in 25, 26" filing cabinet drawers.
- 104,000 pages contained in 26, 16" boxes.
- 51,562 pages contained in 76 large binders.
- 15,750 pages, plus tapes, contained in other files.

MSP's estimated total fee of $799,744.89 is calculated as follows: Estimated duplication costs of $170,032.32; mailing costs to be determined; and estimated labor costs of $628,712.57, based on the hourly wage of the lowest paid MSP employees capable of retrieving, examining, reviewing, and separating exempt and nonexempt material—15,784.9 hours at $39.83/hour; and $1000.00 for photographs the number of which is still being determined.

If you decide to narrow the scope of your request or otherwise modify the description of records contained in the request, please mail a new FOIA request to the Michigan State Police, FOIA Coordinator, 106 W. Allegan, Lansing, MI 48933, or fax to (517) 322-5350.

Sincerely,

Linda Ortiz (D.F.)

Type of Incident: Second Interview with _____ – regarding the Oakland County
Child Killing's _____

Gary Gray: Okay Well, today is May twelfth, two-thousand nine. It's approximately eleven o'clock in the morning. Right on time; here, a man of punctuality. Did, did you wait in the parking lot UNCLEAR

No, I, I, I got here a couple minutes early and took a couple drags off my cigarette.

Gary Gray: So, you're all calmed down all the way?

No, there, no there's not...

Cory Williams: But anyway, umm. my partner Cory Williams and you remember me I'm Detective Gray with the s...with the State Police and this is a Livonia officer.

Okay.

Gary Gray: What we had, (cough) excuse me, just a few follow-up questions, and Cory probably be taking over in just a second here, and uh, we just have a few questions; not gonna mix you up we'll probably be here maybe, uh, nine or ten hours; probably the tops; at the most. (Laughing) No, we'll be out of here in just a few minutes, okay? So...

Oh, okay, alright.

Gary Gray: Anyway, uh, everything going good with you?

Yea! Yes it is.

Gary Gray: You're, you're working now or anything? I know you like, I think last time you said you did have...

No I'm, I received assistance...

Gary Gray: Oh.

From a bad accident I had back in ninety-five, but, (clearing throat) I s...I stay busy.

Gary Gray: Yea, you look good. You know, like I said, your, your hair is a little longer than the last time. Turn around there.

Well, it's back there.

Gary Gray: UNCLEAR back and forth. I don't know how it is on top though. What's it look like?

It, it's receding. UNCLEAR since. (Laughing)

Gary Gray: So, anyway, you go ahead Cory.

Cory Williams: Alright.

Gary Gray: We've just got a few follow-up UNCLEAR

Cory Williams: Well, we were here a bunch of times you were, you were very helpful with us.

Good, I'm glad.

Cory Williams: And, uh, we talked a lot about the neighborhood back in Flint in the day and

Yea.

Cory Williams: And what was going on, and, uh, we talked about, I mean some of the stuff we're gonna talk about I now was probably hard for you to discuss before, but we, all that's behind us. I mean, we're aware of what happened.

Okay.

Cory Williams: We're aware of, obviously, what happened with you and what Chris was doing to you back then...

Right.

Cory Williams: ...and the other boys; and, uh, some of that's gonna, we're gonna talk about some of that today, but, you know you can put it all on the table here.

Absolutely, absolutely.

Cory Williams: We're, you know we don't, we don't judge people and we don't, you were a young kid. We don't think bad of you because of what happened back then.

Gary Gray: And, and this is confidential, this is strictly confidential.

Oh, absolutely, that's the three-four walls in here.

Gary Gray: Right, you bet.

Cory Williams: So we wanna talk a little bit more about, about your uncle; about Chris and we wanna talk a little bit more about and, uh, you guys relationships with Chris. Um, back in the, in the seventies...

Yea.

Cory Williams: ...before Chris shot himself.

Okay.

Cory Williams: And I know, I think we talked about that and you had told us at that time that, you know occasionally you'd go stay down there in Birmingham at that big house; your grandma and grandpa's house.

Yes, yes. Oh yes.

Cory Williams: And, uh, spent some time down there.

Yes, yea.

Cory Williams: And then it was just you and Chris, I think.

Uh, it wa...that home in Birmingham was my gr...h...h...his parents' home, my grandparents home.

Cory Williams:

And uh, Chris, he was only twenty-seven when he killed himself but he stayed, he was the youngest of the four boys and he, he lived with them, for quite some time. I think he was, I don't know, it must, maybe it was earlier, mid-twenties, but yea I, my brother who, uh, who's with me now as well, he also, he...he went and stayed with, at the Birmingham home, um...

Cory Williams: Was tha

yes, um, more than I did. I wanted um...because, uh, um, well, uh, I stayed, I'd go to my mother's parents in Flint. Um, well, my mother's parents, my gr...my uh, my grandparents on my mother's side an would go to Birmingham. There was times where I, I went to Birmingham as well, but, I spent most of my time...nov Chris' brother, my father, he adopted me when I was like two. So, I mean, he's my father as I uh, as I, as I, as I know my father, and uh, but biologically he wasn't, uh, my father.

Cory Williams: How 'bout

He's, he's biologically son; my br...my brother. We had the same mother different father's, and so, um, because, because he was son, uh, my grandparents.

Cory Williams: Now was your mom?

My mother, yes.

Cory Williams:

Yep. Yep. Yup. Um, but yea, they're, I, I would go and stay, I, there'd be times our, my, our parents liked, uh, most our, most our adolescent life they preferred to drink and party and stuff so we'd between foster homes and we'd go and livin' with Chris in Sanford and uh, and livin' with my grand...be...with my moms' parents when I'd go there my brother would go stay with the Buschs' in Birmingham and so then there was a lot of different people that took a part in well not raising us, yea I guess UNCLEAR yea, lookin' after us, yea. So, now...

Cory Williams: I imagine because your brother was how many years younger than you?

He's th...he's three years younger than me.

Cory Williams: Okay.

But he was, he was, um, he was um...molested by Chris as well.

Cory Williams: Um, hmm.

At a mu..., I mean y...he was, you know he was very young.

Cory Williams: Um, hmm.

I mean I was like fourteen I think when I got out of Flint and moved to White Hall, but, yea he, he, he bless his heart, yea, he, he had it really rough.

Cory Williams: Um, hmm. Was your dad a molester?

My father: No, not at all. He was a hard core drinker; but he didn't never beat us or nothin'.

Cory Williams: I ask that because he's Chris's brother.

Brother, I know that. Nope, he, he wasn't; and, um, their oldest brother he, he was gay. I don't think he was a pedophile. I don't think he liked young, y...young, young, young men, but I know he was gay.

Cory Williams: Where'd you say he ended up dying?

London.

Cory Williams: London, okay.

Yea.

Cory Williams: Alright.

Gary Gray: Do you know what he died of?

Leukemia. Uh, when my father went to London and, uh, they did the bone marrow transplant was successful 'cause my brother was compare, 'er my brother was compatible with his bone marrow but then he died, you know what, I said leukemia, but I'm not so sure if it wasn't aids. You know, you know, it was a different time and but uh, supposedly it was leukemia but then he died from complications from pneumonia I think UNCLEAR pretty common for the late eighties.

Gary Gray:

Yea, did, did, did uh they visited quite a bit over there do you really know?

In, in London? Um, yea. I'm tryin' to think that they were, I don't remember who died first. I don't they were, they were on a plane I think when they got the news that Chris killed himself, but, I'm not sure if they were coming back from London or going to London, or what. They were travelin' somewhere.

Cory Williams:

That's right. That's right.

Yep.

Cory Williams:

Um, obviously you know you can tell that we've looked into your family extensively.

Absolutely.

Cory Williams:

And, I know as much about, like,

Yep, absolutely.

Cory Williams:

...and Busch's and....
