Re: FOIA People v Busch

Mr. Dietz:

This is in response to your E-mail Freedom of Information Act request received on June 19, 2012. Your request for information is granted. The search based on your request has revealed there are 121 pages of records. There are 32 pages from the file. The preliminary examination transcript is 86 pages long. There is a three-page affidavit from a retired MSP scientist.

The reproduction fee is $48.40 based on $.40 per photocopy. Please forward your check for this amount made payable to Oakland County Prosecutor's Office and mail to County of Oakland, Office of the Prosecuting Attorney, 1200 N. Telegraph Road, Pontiac, MI 48341.

Exempt from the information is any personal identifying information that would clearly constitute an unwarranted invasion of an individual's privacy; such as dates of birth, addresses, and phone numbers. LEIN information and a confidential case evaluation were removed. See MCL 15.243(1)(a), MCL 28.214 and MCL 15.243(h).

Sincerely,

JESSICA R. COOPER
PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

Thomas R. Grden
Assistant Prosecuting Attorney

YOUR FURTHER LEGAL RIGHTS

To the extent that this response, in your opinion, constitutes a denial of your FOIA rights under the Michigan Freedom of Information Act, your statutory remedies under MCL 15.240, as required to be provided to you by the statute, are as follows:

MCL 15.240

- (1) If a public body makes a final determination to deny all or a portion of a request, the requesting person may do one (1) of the following at his or her option:
 - (a) Submit to the head of the public body (as identified above) a written appeal that specifically states the word "appeal" and identifies the reason or reasons for reversal of the denial.
 - (b) Commence an action in the circuit court to compel the public body's disclosure of the public records within 180 days after a public body's final determination to deny the request.
- (2) Within 10 days after receiving a written appeal pursuant to subsection (1)(a), the head of the public body shall do one of the following:
 - (a) Reverse the disclosure denial.
 - (b) Issue a written notice to the requesting person upholding the disclosure denial.
 - (c) Reverse the disclosure denial in part and issue a written notice to the requesting person upholding the disclosure denial in part.
 - (d) Under unusual circumstances, issue a notice extending for not more than 10 business days the period during which the head of the public body shall respond to the written appeal. The head of the public body shall not issue more than one notice of extension for a particular written appeal.

* * *

- (4) In an action commenced under subsection (1)(b), a court that determines a public record is not exempt from disclosure shall order the public body to cease withholding or to produce all or a portion of a public record wrongfully withheld, regardless of the location of the public record. The circuit court of the county in which the complainant resides or has his or her principal place of business, or the circuit court for the county in which the public record or an office of the public body is located has venue over the action. The court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden is on the public body to sustain its denial. The court, on its own motion, may view the public record in controversy in private before reaching a decision. Failure to comply with an order of the court may be punished as contempt of court.

- (5) An action commenced under this section and appeal from an action commenced under this section shall be assigned for hearing and trial or for argument at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way.
- (6) If a person asserting the right to inspect, copy, or to receive a copy of all or a portion of a public record prevails in an action commenced under to this section, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements. If the person or the public body prevails in part, the court may, in its discretion, award all or an appropriate portion of reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and disbursements. The award shall be assessed against the public body liable for damages under subsection (7).
- (7) If the circuit court determines in an action commenced under this section that the public body has arbitrarily and capriciously violated this act by refusal or delay in disclosing or providing copies of a public record, the court shall award, in addition to, any actual or compensatory damages, punitive damages in the amount of $500.00 to the person seeking the right to inspect or receive a copy of a public record. The damages shall not be assessed against an individual, but shall be assessed against the next succeeding public body, that is not an individual and that kept or maintained the public record as a part of its public function.
