

CD,
y Tie

Meet

Industrial con-
vivil defense
"practical
to develop
o-operative
vivil defense
held from
. m. Thurs-
Manger ho-

stry have a
efense, Ver-
defense and
, said Mon-
announce-
in proper
organization
f effective
r disaster,
al, is to be

designed to
y a basic
e broad as-ssembly, Hale
anding the
vivil defense
y and busi-
ained from
onal levels,
knowledge
n industry

meet will be
ent of Azco
s., speaking
vivil Defense
e M. Miller
Co., Battle
"Radiologi-
stry," and
director of
l defense,
Defense in

atory
nism

ller, associ-
at Cal-
the second

—Grand Rapids Press Photographer.

Play Football for Charity

Three fifth-grade school boys from Oakview school district and a teacher at West Oakview school, 3880 Stuyvesant av., NE, count the money brought in last week by a fifth-grade charity football game at West Oakview school.

Admissions and sale of refreshments brought in about $35, $10 of which will be donated to the Junior Red Cross. The rest will be given as a surprise Christmas gift to a charity in Grand Rapids.

Counting the money are, left to right, Dale VanWyk, 10, captain of the West team; Josiah Tazelaar, teacher and director of the football game; Tom Poll, 10, quarterback for the West team, and Tom Stark, 10, captain and quarterback for the East team.

Suspect, 53, Takes Life

W. R. Mosteller
Dies in Cellblock

A 53-year-old local barber, picked up by police Saturday for questioning in connection with thefts of outboard motors, boats, and boat trailers, hanged himself in a police headquarters cell about three hours after his arrest.

Police said Walter R. Mosteller, 11 Dickinson st., SE, tied his belt around a steel plate near the ceiling of the cell, and the other end around his neck. He was discovered by Patrolman Neil DeYoung who entered the cellblock about 8:45 p. m. Saturday to question Mosteller. The man was dead on arrival at Buttersworth hospital

Minister's Widow Dies

Mrs. Paul P. (Harriet W.) Cheff, 81, widow of the former pastor of Hope Reformed church in Holland, died unexpectedly Saturday morning at her home, 830 Edna st., SE.

Surviving are three sons, P. Theodore Cheff of Holland, president of Holland Furnace Co., Stanley W. of Grand Rapids and Philip G. of Miami, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs. Edith Shroyer of Miami, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Maude Lundquist of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Edith Strick of Palo Alto, Calif., and a brother, Gerald Walker of Palo Alto, Calif.

Private funeral services will be held at the P. Theodore Cheff residence in Holland at 3 p. m. Tuesday, with burial in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

The body is at Nibelink-Notter mortuary in Holland.

Urge Park Be Saved

PTA, Kiwanians
Protest M21 Route

Two more Grand Rapids groups have gone on record opposing routing of M21 expressway through John Ball park.

The Grand Rapids Council of Parent-Teacher associations at a recent session voted a letter to State Highway commissioner John C. Mackie protesting the routing.

The group, representing PTA membership here of 13,000, said, "We feel that John Ball park should remain intact, as it is at present, providing a safe, quiet and attractive place for the people of Grand Rapids to enjoy. Routing the expressway through the park would take