Dear Colonel;

I am in the process of writing a book with Tom McIntyre of WWJ Radio about the Oakland County Child Murders, and Tom has asked to view some of the crime scene and autopsy photographs in the Kristine Mihelich and Timothy King case.

Tom feels that this viewing will help get a feel for the case. We are not interested in possessing any of the photographs or reproducing them but merely looking at photographs that would not compromise the case.

Tom made the request to D/Sgt. J. Krease who went through channels to Major Smith who advised we must write a letter to your office for permission.

I hope you will allow a controlled viewing of whichever photographs District feels comfortable letting Tom view.

Sincerely,

Robert H. Robertson
