CONTACT JERRY TOBIAS:

Officer was contacted by Jerry Tobias a member of the original Oakland County task force. Tobias told officer that Jacobi had been a possible suspect in his mind for quit some time and that recent information he had received seemed to indicate that there was a greater possibility than he originally thought.

Tobias told officer that he was participating in a book show being held at the Holy Name Catholic Church in Marine city in early 1991 when he met Jacobi. (Tobias writes children's books) When Tobias was introduced to Jacobi, a priest at the church, Jacobi seemed very interested in the fact that Tobias was involved in the task force. Jacobi gave Tobias a tour of the church and while doing so offered his wife a decorative glass ball. The ball opened and inside it has a mirror in each side. There was also a picture of a young boy inside. Tobias told officer that Jacobi appeared fastidious about cleanliness and in particular his own appearance.

Though the contact bothered Tobias he did not make the possible connection until he learned that Jacobi had thrown himself on the alter in the church during a service and asked for forgiveness stating "Forgive me for my sins and all the bad things I have done!" Tobias stated that at the time of the killings Jacobi lived within three minutes of the King drop site. Tobias also told officer that the Killings ceased at approximately the same time as Jacobi graduated from seminary.

Tobias told officer that Jacobi is now in a safe house at
